ASCENDANTFX
PAYMENT SOLUTIONS WORLDWIDE

AscendantFX named one of the leading innovative fintech's in Canada according to the Toronto Financial Service Alliance (TFSA)

TORONTO, June 20, 2017 - AscendantFX Capital Inc. (AFX) has captured the spotlight as one of the leading innovative fintech start-ups in Canada according to a newly published report by the Toronto Financial Service Alliance (TFSA).

AFX is leading the charge within the fintech ecosystem and continues to be a cutting edge innovator. This unique platform marries the worlds of technology and international payment delivery to provide award-winning, technology-based payment solutions for any business.

The TFSA report provides an analysis on the fintech industry around the globe with a large focus in Canada and the evolution that continues to develop within the Toronto - Kitchener - Waterloo corridor. The report establishes a target framework to compare this environment to others around the world while also exploring developing trends in the sector and the impact of the existing regulatory and policy.

AFX was identified as a leader in this industry and as the fintech boom continues to dominate the growth of the sector it is poised for the local and global economy. There is an abundance of opportunity to develop North American corporations, technology leaders and professional workforce by helping to propel the country's pace of innovation.
